End of Term

What a whirlwind of a term we have had, to kick off 2021. Our teachers have had a wonderful time building strong relationships with our learners and our whānau. A brief lockdown and an Easter break have not dampened our spirits and we have ploughed on into learning with enthusiasm and confidence. Our camp and outdoor education experiences are key contributors to this and growing our learning DNA, of being Up for a Challenge, being Curious, Collaborating and Communicating. As a school we have launched our new school values of Manaakitanga, Kaitiakitanga, Whanaungatanga and Ako. We have loved seeing our learners embrace these and we are seeing wonderful examples of these each and every day. Our learners are showing such kindness, and care to others and our environment. And what wonderful teachers your children are when they share their skills, talents and life stories with their peers and their teachers. We all have so much to learn. The possibilities are endless.

School Closes at 2pm

Just a reminder that school closes for the holidays at the earlier time of 2pm this Friday, 16 April.

Bright Outfit Day – Friday 16 April

The TravelWise Team would like to invite you to take part in a very special event. This Friday, the 16th of April, Chelsea is hosting a Walking Awareness Bright Outfit Day. Bring out your brightest most outrageous outfit. From bright socks and shoes to coloured hair spray. Think outside the box. The more outlandish the better. Two $10 Gift Cards will be given out to the best dressed. This is a gold coin donation event. All proceeds will be used to buy prizes for other walking promotions we will host throughout the year.

School Holiday Activities

There are some amazing offerings for School Holiday activities around Auckland this Holidays. Check out this website What's on in Auckland. Personally I'm booked in to the Van Gogh Alive experience and I think the Latin festival looks like it could be a bit of fun. Your crew might love crafting Robots at Motat or Ice skating in Takapuna. Over Easter Mrs Douglas visited our Auckland Museum and came back raving about the new Discover Stories of Auckland exhibition which sounds like a must see.

Hero Learning Stories

Our teachers have been working away on Learning Stories. As always, it's a pleasure to read these and see how well our teacher's know your children, as learners, but more importantly, as people. We would love it if you could take some time to read these to your child/ren and celebrate with them. There is also a space at the bottom of each learning story to make a comment. These comments mean a lot to our kids and stay as part of their records until they leave our school.

DNA and Values Awards

Congratulations to our learners who have been recognised for their outstanding work in showing our DNA and values.

This term is a time of real traction in embedding these values. We are starting to hear our learners talking about the different values and what they mean.

Installation of CCTV Cameras

During the holidays, CCTV cameras will be installed on our school grounds. The decision to install cameras has been made by the Board of Trustees. The installation and operation of the cameras meet the requirements of the Privacy and CCTV guidelines used by the Office of the Privacy Commissioner. All cameras on our school site will be installed outside of buildings.

We have included our CCTV Policy from School Docs that outlines how the system will function.

The school's camera surveillance system is installed to deter crime and undesirable behaviours, and thus provide greater protection for our students and staff, and less wilful damage to property. The system may operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week, according to the school's evaluation of when it is needed.

The school complies with the Privacy Act in using and managing the system and every effort is made to prevent it from impacting on the privacy of the school community in its daily life. Specifically, the Privacy Act demands that:

- Information is only collected for a necessary and lawful purpose.
- Individuals must be aware of the information collection and the reason for it.
- Information collected for one purpose cannot be used for another.
- Information is stored and disposed of securely.

To achieve this, we have the following guidelines:

- The school's privacy officer (Amanda Douglas) is responsible for overseeing the CCTV system.
- The system is installed so that individuals committing a crime on school grounds can be identified and prosecuted. It is only used to identify persons illegally on the premises or engaged in criminal activity, or disturbing school programmes or individuals.
- Access is limited to the privacy officer and appointed system managers. A log book is used which details access to the system, the purpose of the access, and the operator.
- Staff are advised that while they go about their normal business at the school, their recorded images, and those of their students, will not be reviewed except to identify culprits.
- No recorded data is taken from the system unless approved in writing by the privacy officer.
- Police may request access to CCTV records when investigating criminal activity in the area. The police are given access to the system as required but must comply with this policy. If the school has concerns about releasing this information, we will contact our legal advisors. The school must comply if the police have a search warrant.
- Requests for access to the system from parents or other interested parties will be denied unless good cause is given and the board formally approves this access.
- Any system misuse is reported to the principal, or the board of trustees if the principal is involved.
- We have signage in strategic places to inform people of the system, and our reason for it.
- Staff have the right to see footage of themselves as it is personal information held about them. However, they can only see it if it is readily retrievable, so must supply a time, date and location. The privacy of other people who may be in the footage must be considered in this case.
- All data, hard drives, etc., are destroyed or stored in compliance with the approved standard on data protection. Data is stored according to the standard so that it is not compromised and can be successfully used in court as evidence.
- Cameras are not installed in sensitive places such as bathrooms.
- The monitoring firm provides regular reports on the effectiveness of the system, and the system's operation is checked regularly by the privacy officer and monitoring firm.
- The system, its operation, and related policies and procedures are audited and evaluated regularly as part of the annual health and safety audit.

Art Exhibition

There is so much wonderful art throughout the school already this year that it's a must. Our Art Exhibition will once again feature on the calendar. Plans are underway to hold this in Week 10 of term 3. We know you will love it. We have such talented children and teachers with such wonderful ideas. We can't wait!

School Pool Closed

The School Pool will be closed as of this Friday, 16 April. Please return all keys to Jo at the office.

SUSHI LUNCH EVERY FRIDAY

About Us

We are just an ordinary mum, dad and parents. Maybe NOT.

Since our little girl started the school, we wanted her school lunch to be healthy and something she'd actually enjoy eating at lunch time. At the time, we have also discovered that there were many other parents just like us with busy lives looking for healthier and better school lunch options for their children, so the "Sushiday" was born.

After years of providing fresh and yummy sushi lunch to local schools, we've established a popularity and reputation from the school communities.

Sushiday was re-launched early 2021 after we sold our "Much loved" shop on Archers Rd in Hillcrest and relocated to focus on catering school lunch to a wider network of schools.

Sushiday lunch is made fresh in the morning on the day and delivered to school closer to the lunch time.
